

Suggestions:

- If you're married, please include your spouse in this process and look for ways to increase your unity and build agreement.
- Keep these review meetings focused and brief, but schedule them on your calendar as a recurring event every 3 months, initially. (Adjust length and frequency as needed).

Mindset:

- Do I believe that God owns it all?
- Did I hyper-focus on accumulating assets for myself and provision for my family?
- Did I give out of obligation rather than joy?
- Have I been subconsciously putting my hope, security, or identity in wealth?
- Was I distracted by the worries of this world or blinded by the deceptfulness of riches?
- Have I been trust God to provide for all of my needs?
- Did I ignore the voice of Holy Spirit in my conscience, valuing my own logic and reason above His still, small voice? If so, what can I do now to fix it?

Ask and listen. Record your thoughts below. "God, what would you have me do to upgrade my mindset around money?"

Behavior:

- Am I using a budget or cash flow plan and automating my giving and saving as much as I can so it doesn't inadvertently get spent?
- Did I meet my giving goal? (Do I need to set a giving goal?)
- Did I increase or decrease my total debt?

- Am I working at my job as unto the Lord?
- Did my giving, saving, spending, and investing seem to align with God's goals and values as I understand them?
- Did I invest in something that prioritized return over integrity or kingdom impact? (If you're not sure on this, you can learn more at www.MakeYourMoneyCount.com.)

Ask and listen. Record your thoughts below. "God, what behaviors would you have me adjust in the next 3 months around my giving, saving, spending, and investing?"
